

DESCENDANTS OF WM. HARTWELL

Assemble by the Hundreds to Hold a
Family Reunion at Concord.

CONCORD, Mass., September 2.—Two hundred and fifty years ago today the family of William Hartwell arrived within the borders of the town of Concord and took up their dwelling in that part of the town which has since been set off as the town of Lincoln. Since that day six generations of the family have passed away, and the seventh and eighth generations are today scattered over various parts of the country. It was not until two years ago that the plan of a general family reunion, to occur annually, was carried out; but the first reunion, in 1884, was so successful that the plan met with cordial support from all branches of the family.

Last year, the reunion occurred at Concord, and about 450 members of the family were present. Today, a still larger number met at the agricultural building to observe the 250th anniversary of the settlement of their ancestor, Wm. Hartwell, in Concord. Representatives were present from Boston, Waltham, Weston, Lincoln, Maynard, Littleton, Bedford, Fitchburg and many surrounding towns. At the speaker's table on the platform was prominently displayed the ancient military commissions granted to members of the Hartwell family as follows: May 9, 1769, Josiah Hartwell, captain of the Second Military company of Foot in the town of Littleton, signed by Sir Francis Bernard, captain general of Massachusetts Colony, September 2, 1789; Simon Hartwell, ensign of a company in the Sixth Regiment, signed by John Hancock, governor, April 29, 1819; Cephas Hartwell, ensign of a company in the Second Regiment, signed by Governor Brooks, November 17, 1862; Cephas L. Hartwell, first lieutenant in the Seventh Battery of Light Artillery, signed by Governor John A. Andrew.
