EDITORIAL COMMENTS

It is my sad duty to inform readers of two great losses to the Hartwell family which have recently taken place.

In December of 1967, our great friend and cousin John F. Hartwell died. While we had never met in person, through the years our correspondence bound us ever more closely together. It is no secret that to John we owe a tremendous debt of gratitude for the production of the Hartwells of America, which first appeared in 1958, and also the first Supplement to the Hartwells of America, 1962. His work in compiling the records of the Hartwell family and in up-dating the work of Lyman Densmore (Hartwell Genealogy, 1636-1887) will forever stand as a testimonial to his efforts--ceasing only in death--to record the history of our family. We are all very proud and grateful for this legacy which John has left for us. We hope that our own efforts will amount to half the great work he performed.

We were also saddened to learn of the fire which swept through the historic Hartwell Farm House which virtually leveled the 2 1/2 story building.

Fire Chief Leo J. Algeo of Lincoln, Massachusetts, has called in the fire marshal to investigate the cause of the general alarm fire. Firefighters were alerted by the owner, Miss Marion Fitch, who lived in the second floor of the house. Firefighters arrived to find the entire back of the building engulfed in flames. The structure is within the Minuteman National Park.

In addition to almost complete destruction of the main building, three interconnecting structures, originally farm sheds, were destroyed. Only the front remains standing and it is problematical whether it can be repaired.

During the Revolution, on the night of the famed ride of Paul Revere, April 18-19, 1775, Dr. Samuel Prescott, who rode with Revere, went to the farm of Samuel Hartwell to alert him of the British march on Lexington and Concord.

Samuel Hartwell, a gunsmith, dressed and joined the Lincoln Minutemen while the rest of the family raced down the road to warn Captain Smith. Revere had been captured earlier in the night in Lexington but Prescott, who had been visiting his girl friend in Lexington, broke away from the British patrol and subsequently went on to Concord.

It is related that Mary Flint Hartwell, Samuel's wife, asked Sukey, their negro slave, to run down the road to Captain Smith's to tell him about the British. It was a moonlight night and Sukey was frightened of the shadows, so Mrs. Hartwell asked Sukey to hold the baby and she would go. Mary rushed down to Captain Smith's to warn him and returned quickly to get an early breakfast for her husband. After he left, Mrs. Hartwell and Sukey milked the cows and turned them out to pasture. Then Mrs. Hartwell sat quietly at home with her children to await the return of her husband, but Sukey dashed into the woods back of the house and was not seen until the next day--long after the battles were over.

Mr. Hartwell was a gunsmith and his house was to have been burned, but when the British returned from Concord, they were in too much of a hurry to stop. One soldier put his bayonet through a front window and Mr. Hartwell found the gun when he returned, repaired it, and used it for hunting.

John Hartwell, who was born in 1848, was the last member of the family to live in the farm house.

In this number we print the remaining reports of English parishes searched for Hartwell material received to date. This brings us up to date on the Parish Register and Bishop's Transcript material received from our valuable searchers in England. A list of those searchers contributing to this number will be found at the end of this number.

PIDDINGTON PARISH REGISTERS, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:

One register is missing--that for the years 1618-1653. The first seven entries given below were very difficult to read and could be HARTSELL, HARTWELL or even WESTWELL. The other entries are definitely Hartwell. As a matter of interest Thomas Hartwell who died in 1699 was Clerk of the Parish for many years. Searched by Mrs. Jean B. Wormald, 8th August 1967.

Missing are the years 1618-1653.

1600	Burial	Robt. Hartsell sonne of Robt. Hartsell was buried ye 27 of August.

1699	Burial	Aprill the 10. Thomas Hartwell ye Parish Clark was buried in woollin.

The following years which are missing from the Bishop's Transcripts were checked in the Parish Registers but no HARTWELL entries were found: 1711, 1723, 1738, 1744, 1746, 1757-8, 1781.

The following is the full entry in the Parish Register of an entry found in the Bishop's Transcript:

1728 Burial Edw. Hartwell Husband of Mary was buried in Woolen March ye 17.

KING'S SUTTON, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:

Searched by Mrs. D. Warren, 2nd April 1967.

Complete Copy of Marriages taken by H. I. Longden who remarks that he found more marriages in the Bishop's Transcripts than in the register. 1660 to 1754 only in the copy. Burials 1660 to 1797 and Christenings 1660 to 1795 extracts only.

As King's Sutton was a Peculiar there are no Bishop's Transcripts at Delepre Abbey. A very few early 17th century years are at Lincoln, and from 1736 to 1812, and the single year 1839, are at the Bodleian, Oxford. No Hartwells were found in the above Marriages or in the extracts.

EAST HADDON, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE:

Searched by Mrs. D. Warren, 2nd April 1967.

Original Registers 1660-1772 (gap from 1709-1741) Bishop's Transcripts 1709-41 done to cover the gap in register, and from 1773 to 1812. Years missing in Bishop's Transcripts 1709, 1723, 1776, 1778-9, 1782, and 1787. No Hartwells found.

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS TO THE BEETLE GAZETTE, Vol. I, Numbers 1 and 2: Submitted by Mrs. D. Warren, 18 February 1968.

Page 3, CRANFIELD REGISTERS: Additions

1638	Aug 28	Richard son of Richard Hartwell baptized.
1639	Dec 8	Joan daughter of George Hartwell baptized.
1667	Jul 21	Elizabeth daughter of William Hartwell baptized.
1674	Feb 2	Richard son of Joshua Hartwell baptized.
1642	Nov 20	Francis son of George; should be Frances daughter of George Hartwell baptized.

Page 4, CRANFIELD REGISTERS: Additions and Corrections.

1616	Nov 19	Francis Hartwell married ANN BARNWELL. Should be 1629 .
1609	Oct 14	Thomas Hartwell of Leighton Buzzard, married ALICE STUDD, daughter of ROBERT STUDD of Cranfield. Should be 1613 .

Additions:

1637	Oct 25	Richard Hartwell and ANN LANGFORD married.
1640	Apr 18	Richard Hartwell and MARGARET LEE married.
1639	Nov 4	John Hartwell and MARY NEWMAN married.
1632	Dec 9	Nicholas Hartwell buried.
1650	Jul 31	Frances Hartwell buried.

Summary: It is stated that Francis was baptized at Billington 4 November 1574; I did not find such an entry, but did find this baptism at Leighton Buzzard. On page 5 Leighton Buzzard the entry is correctly quoted. I found an additional baptism at Billington:

1614	Nov 27	Thomas son of Thomas Hartwell.

Page 7, ODELL Registers: Additions

1677	Nov 11	Mary daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Hartwell baptized.
1691	Aug 5	Katherine daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Hartwell baptized.

Page 9, ODELL Register: Additions

1619	Jul 1	WILLIAM COOPER and Alice Hartler (Hartwell in BT's) married.
1805	Oct 21	William Hartwell and REBECCA COOPER married.
1677	Aug 18	John Hartwell, servant to Sir THOMAS ALSTON not HARTWELL.
1795	Jan 26	MOSELEY Hartwell not MARY.

Memoranda in Register states: Moseley Hartwell was confirmed at Bedford by Bishop of Lincoln on 20 June 1791.

CORRECTIONS & ADDITIONS Continued:

Page 19, Musters, Beacons and Subsidies: Colliner should be calliver (recte caliver) a musket. This man Edward Hartwell had been drawn to serve in the militia and had been issued with a corslet (i.e. light body armour) and a caliver, which he had to produce in good order when mustered and "viewed."

Page 58, ELSTOW Registers; add

1684 May 30 Sarah wife of Nicholas Hartwell buried.

Page 45: Correction: Mary Boughton.

Page 45: Pedigree:

William Hartwell who married Catherine should be miles, knight, or Sir William. Edward not Edmund; John Hartwell married Maria Boughton; Joanna daughter of William and Elizabeth (Barber) Hartwell married ___ Chibnall; Robert Hartwell should be miles, knight, or Sir Robert.

Page 53: Sir Hugh Willoughby was of Wollaton Notts (i.e. Nottinghamshire) not Wollaston Northants.

Page 58, BEDFORD ST. JOHN, addition:

1753 Apr 17 THOMAS PAINE husbandman and Elizabeth Hartwell married, both of Milton.

Page 64, STEVINGTON PARISH, BEDS., addition

1807 Jun 14 Phoebe daughter of John and Mary Artwell baptized.

Page 69, COPLE PARISH, BEDS: Addition

1803 Aug 24 Elizabeth daughter of John and Sarah Hartwell buried.

Page 66, SHILLINGTON PARISH, BEDS.: I have a note that there were several entries.
