EDITORIAL COMMENTS

This issue of the Gazette marks the end of the first year of publication. The reception accorded the Gazette has been very good; subscriptions continue to come in from both individuals and institutions, and the reviews of the Gazette in other genealogical journals have been helpful in bringing notice of it to a large number of people.

When the first issue was prepared and an introduction to it written the tone was one of some pessimism--your Editor having had too much experience to expect immediate success for any such venture. But the Gazette seems to have caught on, and we plan to continue its publication as long as support is forthcoming.

This issue brings to many of the subscribers a notice of renewal of subscriptions for the next volume (1968-1969). Please continue with your financial support so that this valuable family data may continue to be brought to you.

We would like to make a special appeal to subscribers to make an attempt to obtain additional support for this project. Please send names and addresses of any relatives or friends who would like to be notified of the Gazette.

Subscribers please note that the Editor is also the Genealogist of the Hartwell Association. If there are any questions pertaining to your line, or any one in need of lines being worked out, the Editor will be more than pleased to help in any way possible. We have very extensive genealogical files and a fine supplementary library as well. All of this is available gratis to members of the family association.

A last comment: all readers are urged to support the family association (a notice is to be found on the inside back cover). It is through the membership fee (which is very modest) and through additional donations that the expenses of the English Project are being met. This project needs your support.

The 31st Annual meeting of the Hartwell Family Association was held on Saturday June 29th, in Harvard, Massachusetts. These meetings do much to continue the solidarity of the family and all are urged to attend future meetings if you missed this last one. Members of the Association are notified by our Association President through the family Newsletters. Don't miss any of the important happenings concerning your family and family association.

CALENDAR OF WILLS AT WORCESTER COUNTY RECORD OFFICE CONSISTORY COURTS
1451 to 1858

Search made by John Coker, 25 February 1968.

Herewith the complete list of all the HARTWELL/HARTLE, etc. Wills which are in the County Record Office at Worcester.

You will note that there are very few Wills listed under the HARTWELL spelling and this suggests the family were not in Worcestershire for very long. It also means we have no positive clues where to start our searches and the best bet would seem to be to eliminate all the 11 parishes within the City of Worcester itself, particularly as all the original registers are now in the County Record Office.

Another factor which must have an effect, is that there is a parish named HARTLEBURY in Worcestershire, and this suggests that some of the HARTLE families may have originated in this area, and will have no connection with the Hartwells.

Widow and relict of John Hartwell, Woollen Draper.

The freehold messuage in Lichfield to my daughter Ann Hartwell; 2 guineas apiec to my 3 sons, William, Harvey, John, out of their late father's personal estate, it being my Will not to dispose anymore thereof to them.

Residue and Sole Exor: daughter Ann Hartwell.

Signed 22 Mar 1776 with a cross

Witnesses: ANN BATES; CHARLES SIMPSON; WILLIAM GILBERT.

Will of Green Hartwell, of Lichfield, farmer. Proved 15 Jun 1772.

All on trust to my friends, JOHN BIRCH, of Fisherwick in Lichfield, Gentleman, and THOMAS HARVEY, of Lichfield, Gentleman, to sell and divide the proceeds into 4 equal parts.

1 Part to my sister in law, Esther Hartwell, widow and relict of my late brother Joseph Hartwell, for life.

1 Part to my brother George Hartwell, for life.

1 Part to my Aunt, MARY GOODALL, for life.

1 Part to JANE BOND, of Lichfield, spinster, for life.

On the death of the survivor, the capital to be divided equally between the children of my brother George.

The tenement I now live in, and whose lease I hold from THOMAS WEBB, to my sister in law, Esther Hartwell.

Signed 30 Sept 1768

Witnesses: THOMAS THOMPSON; FRANCIS DANIEL; JAMES EGGINTON.

Will of Harvey Hartwell, of Lichfield, yeoman. Proved 26 Sep 1791.

All on trust to my daughter Mary, wife of FRANCIS DEANE, providing she will finally divide it all equally between her children, when the youngest is 21, and subject to her paying £60 to her sister Elizabeth HAYWOOD.

None of the property is to be sold, though she may sell the acre of land situate in a place called Wissage, in Lichfield, if she wishes, to help to raise the £60 for Elizabeth's share.

Signed 8 Sept 1781

Witnesses: JOSEPH ROCHFORD; JOHN TWOMLEY; JOHN CLIFFORD.

Will of Mary Hartwell, of Mavesyn Ridware. Proved 8 April 1833.

This is a copy of the original Will, which has been sent to the Pre-rogative Count of Canterbury, by order of the Chief Surrogate. This Will seems to have been proved at Lichfield, by mistake, as there is estate left by the testator in more than one Diocese.

Sent to Doctors Commons on 12 June 1837.

Testator is - of Bentley Farm, and a widow.

To my great neice, MARY SANDLES, wife of MR. WILLIAM SANDLES, my half share in the messuages, shops and tenements, etc. in Lombard Street, Lichfield, now occupied by MR. JAMES PALMER.

The property in Lombard Street, Lichfield, now occupied by MR. KEELING to the two daughters of William and Mary SANDLES - Mary Alice and Emma.

To the said JAMES PALMER, my piece of land called Barnes Meadow, in Lichfield, now occupied by MR. THOMAS LEACH - ON TRUST - for the benefit of Mary SANDLES for life, and then to go to her son, Samuel.

To JANE HOSKINS, my servant, £5.
To JAMES PALMER, £5 to buy a ring.
Residue to Mary SANDLES.
Exors: JAMES PALMER, WILLIAM SANDLES.

Signed 15 May 1826.

Witnesses: ANN GILL YAPP; WILLIAM MANDER; WILLIAM GILL

On 30 Nov 1829 the Will was resigned and sealed by Mary Hartwell in the presence of REBECCA HART; JOHN COPE; WILLIAM GILL.

Testator died 8 March 1833. Aged 96.

Note: It would seem that Mary Hartwell must have acquired more property since the Will was drawn up, as all the property mentioned above is within the Lichfield Diocese.

A search has been made in the BT's for Mavesyn Ridware, but no Hartwells were recorded, and the above Mary Hartwell was not buried in that parish.

GLOUCESTER CONSISTORY COURTS: John Coker, 21 April 1968.

Will of John Hartull of Forthampton. Proved ? 1557.

This Will is very sketchy and badly written on a single piece of paper. John is described as "husband" probably husbandman. He leaves...?... to his two sons, Robert and George with the residue to his wife (not named) who is also sole exor. There are no witnesses.

Will of Richard Hartwell of Chipping Campden, weaver.

Noncupative Will dated 15 Aug 1670. Proved ? 1670.

A full transcript of the main body of the Will is as follows:
Imprimis - He gave to Katherine, his wife, his two tenements in Laisborne to hold to her during her lifetime. Item - He gave the said two tenements to his two daughters Marie and Elizabeth to hold to them from the death of the said Katherine during all his terme therein (vizt) that is the tenure of RICHARD HASELER to the said Marie and that in the tenure of ELIZABETH SHURLEY, widdow, to the said Elizabeth. PARISH OF CHIPPING CAMPDEN, GLOUCESTERSHIRE: Searched by John Coker, 2 May 1968.

From the list of Wills previously given we noted that this parish figured prominently in connection with the Hartwell name, and it was therefore thought that the registers would be well worth searching. Unfortunately, these Parish Registers have never been copied and are still at the church. We have no alternative--for the time being--but to search the BT's, and we have covered the period 1751 to 1840, and have certainly proved that the Hartwells were well established in this parish.

Unfortunately, these BT's leave much to be desired, and many of the early baptisms do not give the names of the parents, which makes it impossible to identify any child. The search was stopped when we got back to 1751, as the transcripts were getting more and more unreadable, due to bad handling and damp, in the days long ago. We are hoping that we can get a local searcher to go to the Parish Church and examine the original registers.

- 28 Oct 1732 C Sarah d/o Robert and Sarah Hartwell
- 26 May 1734 B Sarah Hartwell
- 2 Sep 1757 M RICHARD GULLIVER and Mary Hartwell
There were no Gulliver baptisms after this event.
- 17 Feb 1773 B Sarah Hartwell

Note: After 1780 the name ARKELL appears in the registers.

PARISH OF UTTOXETER, STAFFORDSHIRE, BISHOP'S TRANSCRIPTS AT LICHFIELD DIOCESAN REGISTRY; searched by John Coker, 15 March 1968.

In the Calendars for the Lichfield Consistory Court there are some entries for HARTWELL of Uttoxeter. It was therefore considered that it may be worthwhile to make a search in the BT's for this parish.

A search has been made covering Baptism Marriages Burials from 1668 to 1732 and Baptisms and Marriages from 1733 to 1782.

During the whole of these periods NO MENTION OF THE NAME (or variations of the spelling) was found. It would therefore seem that though the family may have been living in the parish when they made their Wills, they did not use the Parish Church for their family events.

This may be accounted for if they lived near the boundary of the parish and may have found the nearest church was in a nearby parish.

ADDITIONS, CORRECTIONS AND COMMENTS: The following are extracts from letters received from Mrs. Dorothy Warren and pertain to material previously published in the Gazettes:

10th March 1968

I have checked Odell [Woodhall] Register (printed copy) against my own extracts and confirm what I said in my letter of the 18th February (see page 117). I also discovered another omission which I failed to mention in the same letter. This was:

1781 19 June Joseph H widr and Eliz. How. M.

16th March 1968

Mr. Harris has sent me a copy of your letter to Mr. Coker in which you express some reservation about the spelling Hartle, etc. I cannot speak for Worcestershire, but so far as Northants and Bucks are concerned any spelling which sounds like Hartle should be accepted. Hartwell is only five miles from here and I know it is pronounced Hart'ell. Bradwell in Bucks is Brad'ell or Bra'll. These pronunciations are of course gradually dying out with the spread of education. Rothwell is Rowell or Roll; Pattishall--Pashul; Bidwell--Biddle; False Well--Fassell; Fairhill--Farrel. These spring readily to mind, and I think you may take it for granted that any word ending in well will have the "w" elided. Conversely, some words beginning with a vowel will have a "w" prefixed: Odell and Wodell come to mind. Some words beginning with "w" have it elided such as 'ooman for woman. Wolfhampcote in Warwickshire is Oofencote. Another peculiarity is prefixing a "y" such as Yerl for Earl and Yerby for Erby. Earl has actually got to Leherle locally and is pronounced Lerl. If indexes only are searched many omissions might occur. What rather worries me about Hartwell is the possibility of Artwell being missed. Another worry is Attwell which so far I have not included. Funnily enough this name always seems to have the "w" sounded; I do not recall ever seeing Attell, which contradicts what I said above. My impression is that some clergy when entering names in registers tried to correct the pronunciation of the parties and in so doing may have altered the original name. I have done a considerable amount of work on the name Russell which in Northants was originally Rushall. Both forms survive in the same district, and occasionally the name is entered as Rushwell, but though this may have been the original form, I have found no evidence to support it.

6th April 1968

Further to my letter of the 16th March. I have now re-checked Cranfield Register (ts copy) and have found two items which I missed in my original hasty search, and which were also missed from the Gazette, viz:

1622 5 May Nich H and MARY ROBINSON married
1642/3 29 Jan Josuah (sic) s of Rd H chr.

I am very sorry to tell you that I discovered that I had made two errors. I feel there was some excuse owing to the haste with which I did the search and the way in which the entries are arranged. This register was copied during the War when paper was rationed and in order to include as much as possible the marriages were arranged in two parallel columns close together, and it now seems that it is necessary to read straight across the two columns instead of down each column separately as would be done in a printed book. Without going into more detail I will just say that I was misled and consequently assigned the wrong year to the entries. The date of Francis H's second marriage was 1616 as Ashcroft said, and the date of Thos. H. to Agnes STUDD was 1610 (not 1609 as in the Gazette or 1613 as I said)...With regard to Pavenham there is a slight correction which I did not mention previously as I was not sure about my own note. 1789 Mar. 29, William Ball not Bell as in Gazette

ERRATA

Although care has been taken to free the pages of the Gazette from the errors which plague the genealogist, some are present. Fortunately, most of these are typographical. Those which are errors of omission or misunderstanding are given on pages 116-117, and 159-160. The Editor is very much indebted to Mrs. Dorothy Warren for her professional scrutiny of the pages of the Gazette. It is hoped that all readers finding any errors will call them to the attention of the Editor. In genealogical works it is never too late to correct--and in fact the identification of errors is one of the noblest acts a fellow genealogist can perform.

For corrections to researches and comments in Number 1, see pages 116-117, and 159-160, and;
Page 16, line 10 read: made before Richard Whittington.

For corrections to researches and comments in Number 2, see pages 116-117, and 159-160, and;
Page 40, line 32 read: BLAND, not BLAUD.
Page 45, line 14 read: Mary dau. of Boughton, not Broughton; the same correction for the chart on page 53.
Page 91, line 10 read: Frances Mold, not Hold.
Page 96, last paragraph: It is possible that some of these parishes are assigned to the wrong county (Rutland).
Page 101, line 21 read: Anne Artwell bornu, not borh.
Page 112, line 19 read: May 4.
Page 131, lines 3, 6, 23 read: Belbroughton, not Belgroughton.
Page 131, line 27 read: Wolyerley, not Wolberley.
Page 134, line 28 read: s/o, not S30.
Page 134, lines 18, 38 read: Hartill (a matter of the typewriter running away with itself...)
Page 142, line 23 read: if she wishes, not i she wishes.

And, again, the Editor will be so grateful for the notification of other errors which are not found on this list, as well as for any errors which may appear in Volume II of the Gazette.

Strictly stag.

The head of the hart, the well, and the pear trees spelled out Hartwell Perry's name on his tavern sign two centuries ago. The sign hangs today in Colonial Williamsburg, the eighteenth-century capital of Virginia, a community of living history where even small details are exciting.
