GENEALOGIST'S REPORT - 2007

My compilation of the first five generations from William¹ Hartwell of Concord in 1636 is now in print. Anyone is more than welcome to contact me to obtain my biographies of their Hartwell ancestry from the sixth through their own generation. All they have to do is ask!

Research is always ongoing, as descendants of William continue to be born, marry and die all over the world. Following are the vital records for 2007 that have come to my attention. I'm sure there are many more that have not come to my attention, as I have no births or marriages to report!

2006 DEATH

My thanks to Rebekah Hartwell for identifying her grandfather, whose death was listed in last year's list of deaths found on the SSDI:

Minutes of the 2007 Annual Meeting of the Hartwells of America

On Saturday, June 30, 2007, some fifty Hartwell cousins and friends convened at the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church in Concord, MA for the Hartwells of America Association's 69th Anniversary Reunion.

President Wayne E. Hartwell (Foxborough, MA) called the business meeting to order promptly at 1:00 p.m.

Evelyn Allison (Revere, MA) offered an opening prayer, which was followed by a moment of silence in memory of Hartwell cousins and friends departed since the last Reunion.

The following first-time Reunion attendees were recognized and welcomed: Stephen Hartwell, North Reading, MA; John and Barbara Hartwell, Niantic, CT; Chuck and Cindy Hartwell, New Salem, MA; Kay Hartwell Philipps and Ed Philipps, West Chester, PA; William Hartwell Thalheimer, Somerville, PA; Alena Grace Thalput, Somerville, PA; and David Graham, Morrisonville, NY.

The minutes of the 2006 business meeting, as published in the 2007 Newsletter, were accepted.

David Hartwell Webber (Dunstable, MA) delivered the Treasurer's report. As of the close of the Association's 2007 Fiscal Year (June 30, 2007), the balance on hand in the Scholarship Fund was a healthy $12,905.67 (with receipt during the year of donations tallying $1,068). On the other hand, the Operating Fund, which finances the Reunion, Newsletter, and other Association operating expenses, contained only $2,373.98. Revenue to the Operating Fund for the year, from bank interest, dues, and the sale of Hartwell literature, and including a one-time dividend of $486, was $1,059.93, while operating expenses for the year totaled $1,088.93. In view of yet another annual deficits in the Association's operations, David reiterated the need for either a healthy increase in the number of dues-paying members (unlikely) or an increase in the annual dues to keep the Association's operations solvent. To address the situation, the Executive Committee sponsored the following motion: "That the annual dues for membership in the Hartwells of America Association be set at Five Dollars ($5.00) commencing with the Association's 2009 fiscal year, July 1, 2008 to June 30, 2009." During discussion of the motion, Wayne Hartwell pointed out that the dues were last increased—from $1 to $2—in the early 1970s; in terms of 2007 inflation-adjusted dollars, the dues were worth about 49¢, or barely enough to mail a Newsletter. After further discussion, the motion was passed. On motion, David's report was accepted.

Scholarship Committee Chairperson Victoria H.C. Rogers (Otisfield, ME) announced that the committee had voted to award Scholarship Grants for the 2007-2008 academic year in the amount of $200 each to Andrew Bowen, of Santa Rosa, CA, a sophomore at Northwestern University, Evanston, IL, majoring in journalism; Shauna McLain, from Esko, MN, a freshman majoring in business at the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, ND; and Katherine F. (Katy) Hartwell, of Foxborough, MA, a sophomore pursuing a major in studio art at Hobart & William Smith Colleges, Geneva, NY. On motion, Vickie's report was accepted.

Association Genealogist Joy Peach (Lancaster, MA) was pleased (and probably relieved, as well) to report that The Descendants of William Hartwell, Concord Settler, 1636, Through Five Generations, her masterful genealogy of the earlier generations of William's progeny, had been received from the printer and was available for purchase (Treasurer David Webber actually sold out all the copies he had brought to the Reunion). Joy received a hearty round of congratulations and thanks for her efforts on behalf of the Association.

Seventieth Anniversary Reunion Memorial T-Shirts, crafted by Katy Hartwell, were distributed to the following distinguished attendees. The person traveling the furthest to attend was William E. Hartwell of Middlebourne, WV. William noted for the record that at the last Reunion he attended (the third, in 1939), he had received the prize for being the youngest (not bad: show up every sixty-eight years or so and get an award every time). Lucy Booth, of Framingham, MA, was the eldest lady (86) in attendance, while Warren Hartwell, Swampscott, MA, took top honors in the eldest gentleman (83) category. Alena

Grace Thalput, Somerville, PA, was clearly the youngest attendee (see photo), but we forgot to record her age.

Contributions were voted to First Parish for its much-appreciated use, once again, for the use of its facilities, and to the Social Law Library for the work of the Library's graphic designer on the preparation of the Association's Newsletter.

Following the conclusion of the formal business meeting, and after hearing the day's special speaker, the attendees posed for a group photo by Association Photographer, Alison Hartwell (Quincy, MA).

Guest Speaker, Prof. Brian Donahue

The Hartwells have long known that William¹ first appears on record in the New World in 1636 when he was “allotted a tract of nine acres of land [in Concord], probably the fifth allotment from Meriam’s corner, nearly a mile east of the Public Square.” John F. Hartwell, The Hartwells of America: a Genealogy, Introduction at 2 (1956). But no one knew with any certainty where that tract of land might be. Now, thanks to our special speaker at the 2007 Reunion, Brian Donahue, author of The Great Meadow, Farmers and the Land in Colonial Concord (Yale University Press 2004), we all know.

Donahue is associate professor of American environmental studies on the Jack Meyerhoff Foundation, Brandeis University, environmental historian at Harvard Forest, Petersham, MA, and formerly a historian at Minute Man National Historical Park. The Great Meadow, a work of high scholarship, exquisitely researched and eminently readable, features as a central character William¹. In his very informing and entertaining illustrated talk, Professor Donahue focused on the exploring William¹’s land holdings from 1636 onward through several generations and his place in the development of mixed husbandry in the earliest years of Concord. Of particular interest was Professor Donahue’s placement of William¹’s original homestead: along Lexington Road

(Rt. 2A), “[p]ast Emerson’s house, past the Alcott’s Orchard House, a few doors past the Wayside, near the east end of the village, stands the modest Grapevine Cottage. Here a man named Ephraim Bull bred the Concord grape from native stock in 1840, an achievement commemorated by a small plaque set into the yard fence. Even the historical marker looks historic, as if Bull had placed it there himself in 1841. Two centuries before Bull this was the homestead of William Hartwell, whose seventeenth-century home may yet reside within the structure we see today.” The Great Meadow at 2-3. And so one more Hartwell question is laid to rest.
